National Simulation Lab (NSL)

India's first simulated (mock) trading platform for commodity futures using ODIN DIET & SSL

Overview

Simulated (mock) trading is a unique offering of FT Knowledge Management Company Limited (FTKMC) to provide hands-on experience for obtaining a feel of the real-time trading environment. National Simulation Lab has been launched to cater to the growing needs of skilled professionals in commodities trading. Members/brokers, corporates, professionals, students of business schools, and others can benefit through this offering. NSL provides mock trading using ODIN DIET software (most commonly used software by traders) and Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology from remote locations through Internet. State-of-the-art simulation labs are being established at specific centres all over India for those who would like to have experience of a dealing room.

Who can benefit from NSL?

- Corporates—commodity dealers
- Members/brokers of MCX, dealers, traders, jobbers
- Students and faculty of academic institutions
- Individuals interested in simulation exercise

NSL Trade Timings

Monday to Friday
